“A 12 year old boy, who had run away from his home in Haryana, has been reunited with his family by the staff of Kashmere Gate Police Station. The boy was found by a Policeman from the bus station on Saturday. When asked, he gave his address in Rewari city, which later turned out to be wrong. The Policeman then strictly questioned the child, to which he said that he had failed in his exams and was upset. He did not want to go back to his home, police said.

The Sub-Inspector then asked him to share his mother's mobile number and she was contacted. After which, he took the boy to Rewari railway station and he was handed over to his parent”.
