Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a manuscript page. The text is written in a cursive style and is densely packed across the page. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words written in larger, more prominent script. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a literary work.

Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a medical or legal document. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper. At the top, there is a header in Persian script. Below it, there is a stamp that reads "Hukim" and "Regd. Medical Practitioner, Madras (India)". The main body of the text is written in several lines, with some words underlined. On the right side, there is a vertical stamp that reads "15 AUG 2000". At the bottom right, there is a stamp that reads "RECEIVED MEDICAL (314)".
