

Roll No:.....

Rufaida College of Nursing
Jamia Hamdard
Post Basic B. Sc. Nursing 1 Year, March 2023
Paper Code- BSN- PB-107
Child Health Nursing

Time: Three hours

Maximum Marks- 75

(Write your Roll Number immediately on receipt of this question paper)

The question paper is divided into three sections A, B and C.

SECTION A

Attempt ALL the questions:

Q1. Write the correct answer in the answer sheet.

(10×2=20)

- A. A parent seems concerned about the fact that the infant's anterior fontanelle is open. Which of the following would the nurse include when explaining about the usual age for closure of anterior fontanelle
- I. 2-4 months
 - II. 5-8 months
 - III. 9-12 months
 - IV. 12-18 months
- B. Birth weight in children quadruples by
- I. 5 months
 - II. 1 year
 - III. 18 months
 - IV. 2 years
- C. Complementary feeding should be started at the following age
- I. After completion of 4 months
 - II. After completion of 6 months
 - III. After completion of 9 months
 - IV. After completion of 12 months
- D. A one and a half months old infant is brought by parents to the well-baby clinic for regular check-up. Which of the following immunizations would be appropriate for the nurse to administer at this visit
- I. Pentavalent Vaccine, IPV, OPV, Rota Virus Vaccine
 - II. Measles 1 and JE
 - III. Pentavalent Vaccine, IPV, OPV
 - IV. Pentavalent Vaccine and OPV
- E. After tonsillectomy which of the following findings would alert the nurse to suspect early haemorrhage in a 5-year-old child.

- I. Drooling of bright red secretions
 - II. Pulse rate of 95 bpm
 - III. Vomiting of dark brown emesis
 - IV. BP of 95/56 mm of Hg
- F. A child diagnosed with Tetralogy of Fallot becomes upset, crying and thrashing around when a blood specimen is obtained. The child colour becomes blue and respiratory rate increases to 44 breaths/ minute. Which of the following action would a nurse perform first
- I. Obtain and order for sedation for the child
 - II. Asses for irregular heart rate and rhythm
 - III. Explain to the child that it will hurt for a short time
 - IV. Place the child in knee chest position
- G. Which of the following statements would the nurse use to describe to the parents why their child with leukaemia is at risk for infection
- I. Play activities are too strenuous
 - II. Vitamin C intake is reduced over a period
 - III. Number of RBC is inadequate for carrying oxygen
 - IV. Immature WBC are incapable of handling an infection process
- H. Which of the following nursing diagnosis would the nurse identify as priority for an infant with tracheoesophageal fistula
- I. Impaired parenting related to new born illness
 - II. Risk for injury related to increased potential for aspiration
 - III. Ineffective breathing related to weak diaphragm
 - IV. Imbalanced nutrition less than body requirement, related to poor sucking ability
- I. The nurse determines that interventions for decreasing fluid retention have been effective when the child with nephrotic syndrome demonstrates evidence of which of the following
- I. Decreased abdominal girth
 - II. Increased caloric intake
 - III. Increased respiratory rate
 - IV. Decreased heart rate
- J. Which of the following would the nurse do when providing postoperative nursing care to a child after insertion of VP shunt
- I. Administer narcotics for pain control
 - II. Check urine for glucose and protein
 - III. Monitoring for increased temperature
 - IV. Test CSF leakage for proteins

Section B

Q2. Baby of Mrs. Sita is admitted to the NICU with complaints of not passing meconium and is vomiting since birth and is diagnosed with Hirschsprung's disease.